

What do colleges say about IB?

“It is the 'best' high school prep curriculum an American school can offer.”

Marilee Jones

Director of Undergraduate Admission

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

“IB is well known to us for excellent preparations. Success in an IB programme correlates well with success at Harvard. We are always pleased to see the credentials of the IB Diploma Programme on the transcript.”

Marilyn McGrath Lewis

Director of Undergraduate Admission

Harvard University

“One of the advantages of an IB curriculum is its structure and quality. It is a coordinated programme, well established, well known and well respected. We know the quality of IB courses, and we think the IB curriculum is terrific.”

Christoph Guttentag

Director of Undergraduate Admission

Duke University

“The IB is a first-rate programme, one we are familiar with, and it prepares students well for a university like ours.”

Fred Hargadon

Director of Undergraduate Admissions

Princeton University

“I have always been a supporter of the International Baccalaureate Programme. It is a thoughtful and genuinely intellectual curriculum with an unusually high degree of integrity and connectedness. There is no other curriculum anywhere that does a superior job of both educating students and inspiring a true and broad based love of learning.”

William Shain

Dean of Undergraduate Admissions

Vanderbilt University

“The rigor of the IB Diploma requirements meets our recommendation for the strongest high school preparation possible...in sum, the IB Diploma candidate who has met the challenge successfully receives strong consideration from the William & Mary admission committee.”

Allison Jesse

Former Associate Dean of Admissions

William and Mary University
